

Magna Carta School CEIAG Bulletin!

Issue 1: 15th October 2018

Tutors & Students

Years 7 & 8

Are you Aiming High?

- ⇒ What do you want to achieve?
- ⇒ How will you get there? What challenges will you face? How will you overcome these challenges? Who can support you in reaching your goals?
- ⇒ Who do you look up to? Why? What attributes do they have that you like?

Years 9, 10 & 11

Options After Year 11

- ⇒ What are they? Have you started thinking about them?
- ⇒ What courses at GCSE will help you reach these?
- ⇒ Have you attended Open Evenings at Colleges. It is a big decision so don't wait until Year 11 to visit, ensure that your decision is an informed one!

Parents

Presently students in Year 11 have the opportunity to access independent and impartial information, advice and guidance through either a 1-1 interview or small group sessions. After your child is involved in one of these sessions you will receive a document (via email) that outlines the discussion had as well as the action plan discussed. Continuing the discussion at home is a great way to support your child in their plan beyond TMCS.

Parental Resource for Supporting Student Choices

It may be difficult for you to keep up with the changes and the opportunities available to students and thus a daunting task to answer questions that you are asked! There is no need to know everything, but this resource is an excellent place to start!
